

PARTNER PARTICIPATION OVERVIEW

We invite you to participate in our new AdvancedBiller Marketplace! You have a unique opportunity to be featured on this portal. Independent practice visitors are able to learn about our partners and be matched with those that offer desired services. Participation is by invitation only and completely free as part of the AdvancedBiller partner program.

Benefits of Participation

Potential SEO lift to your website.

AdvancedMD has a strong SEO presence and domain authority, so an inbound link to your website becomes extremely valuable and beneficial.

Get your brand in front of potential clients.

Our website has 100,000+ monthly visitors, which represents an excellent opportunity for you to get in front of many of these visitors as we continue to grow our mutually beneficial partnership.

Qualified lead generation.

Your company listing page will include a lead form where visitors can request a callback for a pricing quote or more information. These leads are exclusive to you are emailed directly to you in real-time.

Partner badge of recognition.

You receive an AdvancedMD partner logo based on your AdvancedBiller tier to gain market credibility and use however you'd like.

Blog authoring opportunities.

One of the key benefits to having a listing on our marketplace is the ability to author blogs. If you are passionate about a topic or idea, let us know and we can work with you for consideration. We have opportunities for you to guest author to the AdvancedMD blog, which will link to your marketplace listing and website. We also promote our blog articles through social media. We have an SEO agency and writers available to help you draft your blog articles for maximum benefit to you and AdvancedMD. Yep, this too is completely free. Here are some ideas:

- Provide tips and tricks about using AdvancedMD
- Discuss key industry topics
- Present data around trends and topics

Your participation in the AdvancedBiller Marketplace is optional as are the blogs (but why would you not want additional exposure, SEO boost and free leads?). For questions, contact your relationship manager or district sales manager.
